John Wanamaker, Merchant Prince, Dies

TRIBUTE IS PAID BY HARDING TO EX-POSTMASTER

Men Prominent in All Lines of Endeavor Join in Expressing Regrets

INTERNATIONAL FIGURE

Severe Cold Contracted at Country Residence Direct Cause of Fatal Illness

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—John Wanamaker, internationally famous merchant and former postmaster general, died at his home here today. He was 85 years old.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Bethany Presbyterian church at 22nd and Bainbridge street, a neighborhood once prosperous but no longer suggestive of either beauty or wealth. In that edifice which long has been familiarly known both by those who worshipped there and others as "John Wanamaker's church" the body of the merchant prince will lie in state Thursday morning from 10 o'clock until noon.

The interment will be private in the family vault in the picturesque cemetery of St. James the Less, The Rev. A. Gordon MacLean pastor of Bethany church, will conduct services both in the church and at the vault.

Mr. Wanamaker had preserved himself in a remarkable manner and his active participation until a few months ago in affairs civic, political, industrial and religious, was regarded as almost without parallel. Although he had not been in his usual vigorous health in the last year, Mr. Wanamaker was identified prominently with the movement to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence with a world exposition in 1926, having been a leader in the exposition in 1876, which marked the 100th anniversary of that same historic event.

The death of the great merchant came at 8 a. m. the hour which more than half a century saw him at his business. The Wanamaker stores in Philadelphia and in New York were closed immediately and will remain so until the funeral. Men prominent in all lines of endeavor joined in expressions of regret at the passing of Mr. Wanamaker and his tributes came from the high, the low, the rich and the poor, business associates, and business rivals. President Harding, Governor-elect Gifford Pinchot and others prominent in the official and religious life of the country paid personal tributes to his life, as did many others who came into contact with his manifold activities.

Early last month Mr. Wanamaker

Bandits Obtain $96,000 in Cash in Spectacular Hold-up of Bank's Messenger

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 12.—In a spectacular holdup in the main lobby of the Livestock Exchange building here late today three unmasked bandits obtained $96,000 and shot Thomas F. A. Henry, credit manager of the Drovers National Bank.

Henry is expected to recover. He was in charge of a detail of five men sent by the bank to get the money at a post office sub-station in the Exchange building. They received the money in five packages. Joined by Jack Kelley, house detective, they started back to the bank.

As the bank messengers emerged into the main lobby three bandits, waving revolvers commanded them to hold up their hands. All complied except Henry, who carried the largest package of money, said to have contained $40,000. Henry clutched the package of money and tried to evade the holdup men.

One of the bandits pursued and fired. Henry fell to the floor. The bandit grasped the package and joined his companions, who had taken money packages from the other messengers. One package, containing $4,000, was overlooked.

The bandits retreated to the street, where an accomplice was waiting in a motor car and another was standing guard to prevent outside interference. The five men drove south at high speed. Pursuit was not attempted. The bandit car later was found abandoned several blocks away.

KILLED BRUNEN UPON REQUEST

Slew Circus Owner to Accommodate Brother-in-law of Victim, He Confesses

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Dec. 12.—Charles M. Powell declared on the witness stand today that he killed "Honest" John T. Brunen, circus owner, at the instigation of Harry C. Mohr and his sister, Dorris Brunen, widow of the slain man. Powell pictured himself as a reluctant slayer of the show man, whom he held as a good friend. He shot Brunen, he said, only after many months of entreaty on the part of Mohr.

The confessed slayer admitted he had not named Mrs. Brunen in his first confession "because she was a lady". Justice Kalish ruled out all testimony as to what Mohr said to Powell indicating Mrs. Brunen was in the plot. The justice ruled that such testimony was not permissible unless Mrs. Brunen was present when Mohr spoke.

"Why did you shoot John Brunen?" Walter Keown the defense counsel asked. Powell, who said he shot Brunen while the latter sat at the window of his home at Riverside, N. J., on the evening of March 10, hesitated and answered:

"I don't know. I did it to accommodate Mohr."

"Why didn't you tell him to do it himself?"

"I wish to God I had."

GOOD YEAR FOR GROWERS

EL PASO, Dec. 12.—This year was a good one and next year will be better still for mohair growers. W. L. Conklin of Newville, Calif., president of the National Mohair Growers association said in addressing the annual meeting of the directors here today. He predicted a flourishing business for mohair growers next year.

URGES SPEEDY ENACTMENT OF SUBSIDY BILL

Measure May Soon Be Super-seded by Farm Loans Legislation in Senate

HARDING URGES BILL

Shipping Bill Sponsor Says He Is Willing to Temporarily Sidetrack Subsidy

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Prompt enactment of the administration shipping bill was urged in the senate and at the White House today but at the same time indications grew stronger that the measure might soon be laid aside by the senate in favor of rural credits legislation.

Developments in connection with these two major pieces of legislation came thick and fast at the senate wing of the capitol and were supplemented by the declaration at the White House that President Harding believed the merchant marine measure should be disposed of before any other legislation was taken up by the senate. The president held that view that the country was entitled to have a decision with respect to the measure without undue delay, it was said. Almost simultaneous with this declaration was the announcement by Senator Jones, Republican of Washington, in charge of the shipping bill that he would agree to lay aside his measure.

BRITISH SCRAP MANY WARSHIPS

Navy Department Report to Congress Expected to Show Many Vessels Now Junk

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Navy department reports to congress called for by a house resolution as to progress made by the United States and other countries on warship scrapping in advance of the promulgation of the Washington treaty, are expected to credit Great Britain with an extraordinary list of vessels actually sold for breaking up, including many capital ships. For the United States and Japan the reports will show that suspension of building programs constitutes the chief preliminary compliance with treaty provisions.

The list of British ships already sold for junking, it was learned today, is composed wholly of 12 inch gun craft. Among vessels which have been dismantled and are now on sale, but not as yet actually turned over to ship breaking firms, however, are two battleships, the Monarch and Orion, armed with main batteries of 13.5 inch guns.

A third classification of capital ships now being made ready for sale but not as yet actually offered to contractors, also will be shown in the British list. With the sale of these vessels and their destruction the British navy would be stripped of all its 12 inch gun pre-Jutland types and also would have discarded several of the older 13.5 inch gun craft leaving the battle fleet retained almost entirely with 15 inch and 13.8 inch weapons.

Neither the Japanese government nor the United States is required under the treaty to scrap any ship of the dreadnaught type while with few exceptions the British ships already sold are of that class. Both in Japan and the United States some pre-dreadnaught ships, regarded as wholly obsolete have been junked, but work of completing the scrapping of other craft by treaty terms awaits promulgation of the treaty. The report to congress will show that certain Japanese ships have been dismantled, guns and even armor having been removed but none of the material nor the hulls actually destroyed. The American ships to be scrapped are all out of commission except the Connecticut.

TIGER TAKES LEAVE OF U. S.

Surrounded by Friends of His Beloved France, Aged Statesman Ends Mission

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Surrounded by friends of France, in a hall festooned with the intertwined flags of America and his own land, Georges Clemenceau tonight came to the end of his "peace mission" and took leave of the United States.

He appeared in the grand ball room of the Hotel Pennsylvania before 1300 members of the American committee for devastated France. Immediately after he had spoken he motored to the steamer Paris, on which he sails back home tomorrow.

The Tiger of France received ovation after ovation—first when he entered the hall to the strains of the Star Spangled Banner, again when he referred to in an address by Jules J. Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States; again when he was introduced by Owen Wister.

Clemenceau spoke about 10 minutes explaining that he "was tired, had sore throat and wanted to go to bed."

"I cannot find words," he began, to express my gratitude for so kind a welcome.

"I had made up my mind about a long and elaborate speech to prove a great many things that need not be proved, and to tell you many things that need not be proved, and to tell you many things which you know as well as I do. But Miss Anne Morgan (chairman of the committee) was good enough to let me know that I had better not speak and I agreed with her opinion."

Why should I speak? I have got a sore throat; I am tired; I am old, and I want very much to go to bed.

"But all this will not prevent me from saying once more what I ought to say. I came to this country to accomplish a duty which nobody asked me to accomplish, and some people even did not seem to like the idea that I was going to do my duty. I came to appeal to the American mind and the answer came from American hearts."

ISMET PASHA INSISTS UPON GREEK EXODUS

Dashes Hopes of Conference for Speedy Settlement of Minorities Question

DISCARDS PROPOSALS

Armenians Brought Massacre Upon Selves, Declares Ismet in Inpassioned Speech

LAUSANNE, Dec. 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, dashed the hopes of the Near Eastern conference for a speedy and satisfactory settlement for the protection of minorities in Turkey, when, in an address at the afternoon's session he insisted upon an exchange of the Greek populations in Anatolia for the Turks in Macedonia. He demanded exclusion of all foreign interference in Turkey, which he said would protect the remaining minorities, as the Turks had always been able to get along with other nationalities when they kept out of politics and were not stirred up by outside influences.

Ismet declared that Turkey would not accept Lord Curzon's proposal to have the league of nations administer the affairs of the minorities, as that would mean that the foreign powers would continue their interference in Turkish affairs and encourage the minorities to appeal to the league of nations. This plan,

WOMAN HELD NOT MISSING CLARA

Suspect Arrested as Clara Phillips at Casper, Wyo., Proves Her Identity

CASPER, Wyo., Dec. 12.—Police after a thorough investigation today decided that the woman arrested here last night on suspicion of being Mrs. Clara Phillips was not the escaped Los Angeles hammer slayer. In many respects, points of resemblance between the woman at headquarters and descriptions of Mrs. Phillips were the same.

Newspaper men were given an opportunity for the first time today to talk to the woman. When first taken into custody by the police, she had refused to answer any questions. After close questioning today she was definitely identified as Beatrice Craig of Kirby, Wyoming.

Since publication of word that Mrs. Phillips had been seen near Idaho Falls, Idaho, officers here have been on the watch for Mrs. Phillips. The arrival of the woman from the north here resembled Mrs. Phillips and refusal to talk were the main facts leading to her arrest.

Day's Events in Washington

Senator Simmons, Democrat of South Carolina, re-introduced the soldier bonus bill vetoed by President Harding.

President Harding signed the bill authorizing the retirement of Associate Justice Pitney from the supreme court bench.

Development of the Mississippi river was urged by Governor Parker of Louisiana in testimony before the house flood control committee.

The senate passed the annual treasury appropriation bill in practically the same form in which it was approved last Saturday by the house.

The department of agriculture estimated this year's total cotton production at 9,964,000 bales, 171,000 bales less than its October forecast.

It was indicated at the White House that the United States regarded with concern the failure of allied premiers to reach an agreement on German reparations.

Republican leaders decided to give rural credits, when a bill is ready for consideration, right of way in the senate over the administration shipping bill.

President Harding and his advisers decided that the administration was not obligated to act on the proposed merger of the Armour and Morris meat packing interests.

The annual supply bill for the departments of state and justice, carrying a provision of $500,000 for the investigation and prosecution of war frauds was passed by the house.

The house judiciary committee began its hearings on the Keller impeachment proceedings against Attorney General Daugherty and agreed it would be unnecessary to call Chief Justice Taft as a witness.

LOST AVIATORS STILL MISSING

Additional Flights Over Mexico Prove Fruitless; More Planes to Enter Search

NOGALES, Dec. 12.—Additional flights over Mexican territory in the search for Colonel Francis C. Marshall and Lieutenant C. L. Webber, missing aviators, were made today by four airplanes which arrived at noon from Tucson to join the Nogales squadron.

Two trips were made into Mexico, one a general reconnaissance while the second involved a careful search of the district southwest of Nogales where a Mexican told of having seen two men in the uniforms of American officers Sunday afternoon.

Neither search yielded any results.

Colonel A. J. McNab, commanding officer of Camp Stephen D. Little, rode in the observer's seat of one of the planes in the second reconnaissance.

Military authorities tonight denied reports, circulated this afternoon that an airplane had been found by cattle-men near Arivaca, Ariz., west of Nogales.

Besides the four airplanes which arrived from Tucson today other groups are expected within the next few days from the Pacific coast and Texas. The incoming planes, according to reports received here, will make a search of the territory along different routes on their way to Nogales.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 12.—No trace of Colonel Marshall and Lieutenant Webber, missing army aviators, was found in the vicinity of the Jack Rabbit mine, 26 miles south of Casa Grande, according to a report made this afternoon to the offices of Governor Thomas E. Campbell by Captain R. H. Peart, Company H, 158th Infantry, Arizona National Guard of Casa Grande, who went to the mine this morning under orders from Colonel Walter S. Ingalls, state adjutant general to investigate a rumor that an airplane had been seen flying over the mine last Thursday.

Captain Peart reported that plane seen by the residents in the vicinity of the mine had passed over the place on Tuesday, December 5, and that no other planes were seen in that district until last Sunday when several of the

One Hundred Dead and Injured in Boiler Blast

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 12.—(By the Associated Press)—One hundred workmen were killed or injured today in a boiler explosion which wrecked the Estrella Sugar mill, near Camaguey.

Thirteen bodies had been recovered up to 7 o'clock this evening and forty injured persons were being cared for in Camaguey. Most of the victims are Spaniards.

Two of the sugar mill's big battery of boilers are reported to have been buried under the wreckage or killed by flying debris.

The Estrella mill is owned by the Compania Central Azucarera an American corporation which was purchased in Havana. Last year the Central produced 227,000 sacks of sugar.

MANY CLASHES FEATURE FIRST DAY'S SESSION OF COMMITTEE

Decide Against Summoning of Chief Justice Taft to Confirm Letter IS READ INTO RECORD

Method of Procedure and Relevancy of Testimony Cause of Much Wrangling

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Hearings on impeachment proceedings brought against Attorney General Daugherty by Representative Keller, Republican of Minnesota, were opened today before the house judiciary committee. They were marked by frequent clashes between members of the committee and Jackson H. Ralston, counsel for Mr. Keller, first as to the method of procedure and second as to the relevancy of testimony.

The Minnesota representative won the first skirmish, the committee voting in executive session, after an hour and a half of wrangling, to hear first evidence on three of the fourteen specifications designated by Mr. Keller instead of taking the charges up in the numerical order in which they were presented originally. Another decision was against the summoning of Chief Justice Taft, whose presence had been requested by Mr. Ralston for the purpose of confirming a letter which Mr. Taft wrote in 1912, while president, to the then attorney general Wickersham and which was read into the record during the day. The committee held that confirmation would be unnecessary.

This letter and one written to Mr. Taft by Mr. Wickersham constituted the principal evidence submitted today. The letters dealt with a pardon for Wilfred N. Jones, convicted in Oregon in 1907 of alleged land frauds and referred to alleged activities of William J. Burns, appointed last year by Mr. Daugherty as chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, in connection with the drawing of the jury in the Jones case.

The purpose of their introduction into the record, Mr. Ralston explained was to support the charge in the impeachment specifications that Mr. Daugherty had appointed to positions "of great importance and large financial and moral responsibility," men who are "untrustworthy, corrupt, and dangerous to the liberties of the people of the United States."

Former President Wilson and Colby End Partnership

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state in President Wilson's cabinet, announced today that his law partnership with the former president would terminate December 31, at the expiration of their co-partnership agreement. The announcement was made from the local offices of Wilson and Colby.

Colby, saying that the former president "is turning his energies once more to subjects which have long interested him," Mr. Colby made no statement as to Mr. Wilson's plans for the future.

It was announced that Mr. Colby would continue the practice of law in this city.
